

Born in Hawaii, Alexander, 16 began playing the cello at age nine with Mrs. Lifan Anthony. Within 2 years he won the Madeline Schatz-Harris Concerto Competition, where he performed as a soloist with the Kamuela-Philharmonic Orchestra, 2016.

He has won awards from 2013-2016 with the Hawai'i Music Teachers Associations.

MTNA/2017 States Division, 1st Alternate

October-2018 Korea Times Annual Youth Music competition-2nd Place

October-2018 Livermore-Amador Symphony, Competition for Young Musicians-1st Place

Performed as a soloist with the Livermore-Amador Symphony-February 2019

2019-2020 Madeline Schatz-Harris Concerto Competition-1st Place

He will perform as a soloist with the Kamuela Philharmonic Orchestra on January 2020

Alexander has spent time in Japan for cello intensives, as well as studying at several Summer & Winter camps in China from 2013-2017. He attended Cleveland Institute of Music, Encore Summer camp 2017 and Meadowmount School of Music Summer camp 2018 and studied under Jonathan Koh.

As of Fall 2018, Alexander has been under the tutelage of Mr. Jonathan Koh and attending the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, Pre-College division.

Alexander also enjoyed playing with the Honolulu Youth Symphony and the University of Hawaii Symphony Orchestra. In his spare time, he swam competitively with the Kamehameha Swim Team.